PLANNED WATER SUPPLY DISRUPTION TO CUSTOMERS SERVED BY THE NORTH OROPOUCHE WATER TREATMENT PLANT

The Water and Sewerage Authority (WASA) advises customers in parts of North-East Trinidad that there will be an interruption in their water supply on Sunday August 24, 2025, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

This disruption is necessary to facilitate urgent desilting works at the plant intake, in order to improve production at the facility.

Areas to be affected include:

| AFFECTED AREAS |
| Sangre Grande (Town), Sangre Chiquito, Manzanilla, Coalmine, Guaico/Guaico Tamana, Malabar Phases 1,3 & 4, Tumpuna Road, San Rafael, Brazil, La Horquetta, Carapo/O'Meara Road, Signature Park/Mausica Road, Maloney Gardens, Five Rivers, Millennium Park, Sunrise Park, Golden Grove Road |

Customers are advised that following the completion of these works, it may take up to twelve (12) hours for the supply to normalise to some affected areas.

For further information, assistance, or to request a truck-borne delivery, customers can also contact WASA's Customer Call Centre toll-free at 800-4420/26.

WASA regrets any inconvenience caused and thanks customers for their patience and understanding.
